

SOCIETY CHAT.

The residence of Mr. John McLean Dodson was the scene of a very pretty home-wedding last Wednesday evening, the occasion being the marriage of his niece, Miss Henrietta Dodson, and Mr. Cecil Morgan, of Macon, Ga., who is a son of the late Dr. James Morgan, and a brother of Dr. Carroll Morgan, of this city. Rev. Father John A. Chester officiated, and his remarks were very happy and appropriate to the occasion. Only the immediate members of the two families witnessed the marriage ceremony, during which the young couple stood in the bay window, which was decorated with lilacs and palms. The bride carried a bouquet of lilacs of the valley, and wore a dress of white faille silk, ornamented with lace and orange blossoms, the bridal veil of white tulle being fastened back by the same flowers. Her only attendant was a beautiful little maid of honor, just seven years old, Miss Ruth Potts, a daughter of Lieut. Stacy Potts, who looked lovely and picturesque in her costume of white muslin, which was made in the fashion of the olden times. The bride was very beautiful and both she and the groom gracefully received the limited number of friends and relatives who were called to the ceremony. After spending a short time with their friends, during which refreshments were bountifully served, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan left for the North on a short bridal trip accompanied by the kindest wishes from all present and a shower of rice for "good luck." At the end of the wedding tour they will start for their Southern home, where Mr. Morgan has prepared a beautiful residence for his bride, to which she will be welcomed by a host of kind friends. The wedding gifts are numerous and elegant, among them a silver tea service and waiter, a gift from Mr. Morgan's mother; a very elegant banquet lamp from Judge Emory Spier and wife, handsome lamp from Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Lancaster, diamond ring from the groom to his bride, handsome candelabra sent by relatives now residing in Europe, also many handsome gifts of rare china and glass, silverware, and fancy articles, which it is hoped will serve to further ornament the new home of the bride and serve to remind them of kind thoughts from absent friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Pie, entertained a number of their friends on Friday evening last at their residence, 1015 New Jersey avenue northwest in celebration of the second anniversary of their marriage. Among the pleasant features of the evening were several selections by the Washington Mandolin, Banjo, and Guitar Club, of which Mr. Pierce is president, also vocal selections by Mr. Charles S. West and Mr. H. Frederick Robert. Refreshments were served in the dining-room, and the handsome floral centerpiece of Marsechal Neil and Hooton roses which adorned the table was much admired. Easter lilies and other potted plants were grouped here and there with pleasing effect. A huge block of ice in one corner of the room formed a rather novel punch bowl. After enjoying a delightful evening the merry party adjourned after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Pierce many happy returns of the occasion. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Losano, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Galleher, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Holmes, Miss Sibley, Miss Agnes Hale, Miss Dorsey, Miss Stewart, Miss Mohr, Miss Robert, Miss Galleher, Mrs. John S. Finch, Miss Daisy Dalton, Miss Handley, Messrs. Hale, McCauley, Galleher, Marble, Stiles, Charles and Edward Dalton, Orr, and Frank H. Pierce, Jr.

At Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Warner's handsome residence on Massachusetts avenue the Georgetown Orchestra and a large number of friends were elegantly entertained on Friday evening. Mrs. Warner received her guests attired in a pretty gown of white silk and lace. The rooms presented a charming picture with their profuse adornments of spring blossoms and fragrant roses. A handsome supper of substantial ices and confections were served. The following programme was rendered during the evening: 1. Piano solo, "Pursifal Improvisation," au bord d'une source, Liszt; Mr. Anton Groetzner. 2. Soprano solo (a) "Beauties Eyes," Tosti; (b) "Snowflakes," Cowen; Miss Bertha D. P. Lincoln. 3. Recitation, "A Humorous Medley," Miss Helen Colhoun. 4. Violin solo, "Romanze," Svendsen; Miss Birdie Lucas. 5. Cello solos (a) "Songs Without Words," Mendelssohn; (b) "Traumerel," Schumann; Mr. Emert Lent. 6. Contralto solo, "Down on the Sands," Ilbery; Mrs. Eunice Domer Rheem. 7. Piano solo (a) "Menuet," Roderick; (b) "Persian March," Strauss-Grunfeld; Mrs. Ernest Lent.

Trobridge, and Mr. Herbert Glesley.

The entertainment at Judge Shellabarger's on Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Young Women's Christian Home was a very successful affair. There was a large and fashionable attendance. The literary and musical programme was very interesting and was delightfully rendered. The recitations were by Miss Howell, Miss Youngs, and Mr. Tweedale. Miss Anita Hendrie was prevented by illness from fulfilling her part on the programme. The musical selections were given by the Misses Prall, Miss Anita Chiss, Mrs. Dr. Gardner, Mrs. Shireliff, Professor Bischoff, Mr. Whipple, and Mr. Knorr.

Mrs. Gen. Spinola was able to attend the Bernhardt matinee on Saturday afternoon, General Spinola insisting upon her doing so. The General celebrated his seventeenth birthday on Thursday of the past week. He is now regarded as being out of danger, but he was so greatly prostrated by his illness that convalescence is slow and tedious. General and Mrs. Spinola have given up their contemplated trip South. They will probably remain here until some time late in April and go to New York preparatory to occupying their summer home at Setuket, Long Island.

There was a great deal yesterday afternoon to engage the attention of the gay world. Mrs. N. S. Lincoln gave a handsome tea in honor of Mrs. John Sherwood. Mrs. Wana-maker invited by card a number of people to listen to recitations by Miss Green, who gave a series of drawing-room entertainments in Philadelphia recently at the residences of Mrs. Drexel and Mrs. George W. Childs.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Meaning of the Names of Countries in the Old World.

Irish Times.

Europe signifies a country of white complexion, so named because the inhabitants were of a lighter complexion than those of Asia and Africa. Asia signifies between, or in the middle, from the fact that geographers place it between Europe and Africa. Africa signifies a land of corn or ears. It was celebrated for its abundance of corn and all sorts of grain.

Siberia signifies thirsty or dry—very appropriate. Spain, a country of rabbits or conies. It was once so infested with these animals that it sued Augustus for an army to destroy them. Italy, a country of pitch, from its yielding great quantities of black pitch. Calabria also, for the same reason. Gaul, modern France, signifies yellow-haired, as yellow hair characterized its inhabitants. The English of Caledonia is a high hill. This was a rugged, mountainous province in Scotland.

Hibernia is utmost or last habitation, for beyond this to the westward the Phenicians never extended their voyages. Britain, the country of tin, great quantities being found on it and adjacent islands. The Greeks called it Albion, which signifies in the Phenician tongue either white or high mountain, from the whiteness of its shores or the high rocks on the western coast. Corsica, a woody place.

Sardinia signifies footsteps of men, which it resembles. Syracuse, bad flavor, so called from the unwholesome marsh on which it stood. Rhodes, serpents or dragons, which are produced in abundance. Sicily, the country of grapes. Scylla, the whirlpool of destruction. Aetna signifies a furnace, dark or smoky.

GEN. SPINNER'S OLD CAMP.

High Island Suggested as a Site for a Memorial Statue.

The ladies of the Spinner Memorial Association having decided upon a bronze statue as the form of memorial that shall be erected in honor of that glorious old patriot and friend of women, it is suggested that while they are casting about for a suitable site upon which to erect the memorial statue they ought not to overlook a spot that was greatly beloved by Gen. Spinner, namely, "High Island," in the Potomac River, just west of this city, on which "Spinner's Camp" was established. There are scores of people in the Treasury Department and hereabouts who well remember how greatly the old General and his friends enjoyed the annual summer "camps" at High Island. Its close proximity to Glen Echo Chautauque, and the certainty that High Island is destined to be less obscure than heretofore seems to warrant consideration of that place as an appropriate place for a memorial to Gen. Spinner.

That Easter is Near

Is evidenced by the interpretation in the different store windows. One of the prettiest ideas of this kind is now on display in one of the large windows of Lansburgh Bros. establishment, the result of many days careful and tedious structure by their window decorator, Mr. F. Hahoff. This is a beautiful and realistic piece of work, representing a large egg and little children, grass, etc., making it novel as well as beautiful. Crowds of people visited the scene of this display of last night, and many more will surely view it before it is taken out of the window.
